Amsterdam Dance Event (ADE) sets dates for 2009

Traditionally the Amsterdam Dance Event (ADE) announces its dates at the beginning of the year and the next edition of the worlds biggest club festival and Europe's main electronic music conference will take place from 21st to 24th October.

Last years edition attracted 90,000 clubbers to its festival program with more than 700 international DJ's and acts performing at 44 clubs and venues throughout the city of Amsterdam. ADE's conference is now recognised as the most important in the field and has sold out for two years in a row, with 2000 professionals attending from 42 countries. This year ADE will be a four day program, enabling delegates to stay tuned to the latest developments in both music and business within the electronic music scene.

'We truly believe that after the success of last years edition and with all the support we get from the international music industry that ADE 2009 will be sold out again. We have also decided to stay where we are as conference, simply because we like it as it is, but mostly because the Felix Meritis and the Dylan Hotel are the perfect size for the hands on conference ADE should be!' says ADE's general manager Richard Zijlma.
