The fourth edition of Buma Rotterdam Beats, taking place from November 14-16, will be showcasing some of the most exciting acts in the urban bass & beats genre. New exclusive names that are added to the festival program include innovative hip-hop producer Black Milk from Detroit, groundbreaking talent rapper/singer Mr. Probz from The Netherlands, popular drum 'n bass duo Camo & Krooked from Vienna, and rapper Rockie Fresh from Chicago who is signed to Rick Ross' record label. In Denmark electronic soul is entering a new and exciting phase, in the United States an openly gay rapper makes noise in the popular queer rap scene, in Australia a dynamic band is breathing new life into the legacy of J Dilla, and a London duo are re-defining the post-dubstep landscape. And while Dutch producers make their mark on the international pop scene with banging beats, a national rapper picks up an acoustic guitar and conquers the charts.
